

Guardian cryptic crossword

No 24,925 set by Orlando

Across

- 1 Title recollected by Beatles enthusiasts, primarily (3,2,2)
5 Porridge put on a rack? (7)
10 A small earring makes a man sexually attractive (4)
11,28 Innocent cook getting in a stew with a rich dish (10,7)
12 Conflict about a carriage (6)
13 Local girl narrowly averted disaster (4,4)
14 Tossing my amusing work out here (9)
16 Rank and number (5)
17 Singer in a long-forgotten oratorio (5)
19 Something to eat and drink – everything extremely good (6,3)
23 One working with Morse, radio operator in part of London (8)
24 Turn back after relative almost gets clear (6)
26 A number of Romans refuse tips but they let you get ready (10)
27 A former railway charity (4)
28 See 11
29 Starved in order to get publicity (7)

Down

- 2 English type is in Paris a month? Not Jan! (7)

- 3 One close to London gets support coming up from the country (5)
4 God help us if we listen (7)
6 Great weight on horse brought over from Polynesia (6)
7 Thin person required to model 22 top (9)
8 Rich man endlessly annoyed about rising employment (7)
9 They say binder discloses what's said (13)
15 Resort hotel in Channel Islands – flipping ancient! (9)
18 English woods? Poppycock! (7)
20 Bound to believe in 9? (7)
21 Ring for Madame found in rubbish (7)
22 The Catholic church goes after church plate (6)
25 Desist from cold comfort (5)

Solution No. 24,924

