

The capital's satellites

This graphic shows selected findings from the Lloyds Bank commuter towns survey, which looked at differences in property prices between commuter towns and London Zones 1 & 2

Saving on the cost of an average house compared to an average house in Zones 1 & 2

Price of an annual season ticket

59%

The property price saving a commuter could expect to make in exchange for a one-hour commute

Wellingborough is the most affordable commuter town with an average property costing

£150,046

in March 2014

Reading is the most popular commuter station with

2.64m

return journeys made by season ticket holders in 2013/14

15.39m

The number of return journeys made by season ticket holders, from the 10 most popular commuter stations, in the 12 months to March 2014

