

Observer Food Monthly WIN GREAT PRIZES FOR FOOD LOVERS

FREE FOOD MAGAZINE

SLATER'S AUTUMN RECIPES
M KERRIDGE, MARY BERRY AND MORE

SKYLINE
 This panel tells the reader about what is happening in another section of the paper. It is to tempt readers inside the newspaper.

The Observer www.observer.co.uk Sunday 18 October 2015 £2.90 (Channel Islands: £3.30)

PRICE & DATE
 The Observer costs £2.90p. The price covers 60% of the cost. The rest comes from adverts.

Bishops in stinging rebuke to Cameron over refugee crisis

Tory MPs in 71 marginals at risk from cuts

PM snubbed church's offer to help ■ Clergy release text of private letter

HEADLINE
 The biggest headline on the page is called the "main splash". This is a serious story so no jokes are made in the headline.

Refugees in Croatia queuing yesterday to cross the border into Hungary before it was closed. Bishops want Cameron to 'mobilise the nation' in response to the crisis. Getty

BYLINE
 by Harriet Sherwood Religion Correspondent and Toby Helm Political Editor

BYLINE
 In it they called on him to increase the number of refugees that the UK is prepared to take over the next five years from 20,000 to 50,000, and to consider involving the church in a national effort to "mobilise the nation as in times past".

BYLINE
 Describing the mass refugees as a "moral crisis" and individuals" ac- behind efforts to make re- and spare housing availa- had fled their homelands.

BYLINE
 They also told Camer- "promote and support... across the C of E and wider community, so that thousands of unaccompanied respond to their suggestions with more than a cursory acknowledgment. "It is disheartening that we have not received any substantive reply despite an assurance from the prime minister that one would be received," Butler says. "There is an urgent and compelling moral duty to act, which we as bishops are offering to facilitate alongside others from across civil society."

BYLINE

BYLINE
 He adds: "There is a real urgency to this issue with those increasingly being forced from their land as their homes are literally bombed into the ground. As the fighting intensifies, as the sheer scale of

BYLINE
 David Cameron claims to represent. The effects on individual households was brought home to millions of television viewers on Thursday when working mother Michelle Dorrell, who voted for the Conservatives in May, made an emotional attack on Cameron during BBC1's Question Time, saying that she worked "bloody hard" and

BYLINE
 Some comes under fresh halt controversial cuts today as new research 71 Tory MPs in marginal seats could be vulnerable to a backlash from families hit by dramatic falls in their incomes. The impact of the cuts, which will leave 3.2 million families worse off by an average of £1,300 a year from next April, is already causing concern among Conservative MPs and ministers, who believe they will punish precisely the kind of working families

BYLINE
 Captions give a brief description of a photograph or graphic. Often they include the photographer's name.

BYLINE
 Continued on page 2

BYLINE
 Continued on page 9

INSIDE > WEATHER THIS SECTION PAGE 53 | CROSSWORDS SPEEDY, THIS SECTION PAGE 53 EVERYMAN, PAGE 41 IN THE NEW REVIEW

CAMERICH
 camerich.co.uk 020 7372 9887

OUR PRICE PROMISE
EDITION STARS
 Up to five different editions are printed per night. Five stars means the fifth edition.

for around SS from other

Often front page stories continue elsewhere in paper.

Lazytime Sofa, £2907. Next day delivery, 15 year guarantee, Removable covers.

Chelsea | Islington | Swiss Cottage | Notting Hill | Kingston | Fulham | Westfield London | West End

1 2 A * * *